CLUB NOTES

NORTH END JUNIORS . . .

By their convincing win over Stockport County last Saturday, our Juniors won the Lancashire Football League (Junior Section) Supplementary Competition. This is a creditable achievement in view of the fact that no less than six members of the team were playing in schoolboy football last season. This Junior Competition is probably the most powerful test of its kind in the county, and is composed of junior teams from the professional League Clubs. We are fortunate in having such a strong competitive testing ground for our young players at such an early stage of their careers.

We congratulate our Juniors in gaining this honour for the club, and may it be the forerunner of many more during their service with North End F.C.

OUR VISITORS . . .

Old footballing friends from the Midlands grace the Deepdale scene today. Our association with West Brom goes back to 1883, even before the League was formed, both clubs being included in 1888 to contest the first of our 37 League games together. This afternoon provides only our eighth clash at Deepdale since January 1938, West Brom having won 11 and drawn 10 of the 37 played, after failing to gain victory in any of the first dozen, since when the tide of fortune has turned their way at Deepdale with 11 wins, 6 draws and only 8 defeats since 1901. Last here just one year ago, North End winning 3-1 after many alarms, including a goal down early in the proceedings.

MICK LYNNE

The latest of a long line of North End custodians, with the unusual record of having played in two F.A. Cup-ties before even making his debut in the Football League.

Celebrates his 21st birthday next month, a product of local schools football —although he is a native of Kettering in Northamptonshire.

At present on his National Service with the Royal Air Force.

THE BOLTON 5th ROUND CUP-TIE . . .

In a fortnight's time we shall be engaged in our F.A. Cup 5th Round tie at Burnden Park, incidentally the seventh time North End and Bolton Wanderers have clashed in the Challenge Cup competition. Of considerable encouragement to North End in the face of this formidable task on February 14th, is the unmistakable fact that of all the soccer grounds in the country, Bolton is North End's favourite visiting place, where we have a first-class record of success. Even in recent times we can point to having won no less than 10 of our last 16 Cup and League sojourns to Burnden Park—rarely indeed an inhospitable host to this club.

Our last visit was on Monday, April 21st, 1958—the Cup-happy Wanderers only two weeks from their Wembley triumph. This League clash resulted in a 4-0 success for North End.

The last occasion on which we met in a Cup-tie at Bolton was the ever-memorable 3rd Round replay on January 13th, 1932, after a goalless Deepdale draw on January 9th. Bolton were then a powerful First Division outfit, North End languishing third from the foot of League Two. Furthermore, the Bolton people firmly believed in the Wanderers "every third year" Wembley win, having chalked up Cup honours in 1923, 1926 and 1929. In that replay North End staggered the football world with a 5-2 rout of the home side, remarkable indeed to record that it was our first away win of the season. Bolton: Jones; Wagstaffe, Finney; McKay, Griffiths, Wright; Butler, Gibson, Blackmore, Taylor, Cook. North End: Wolf; Gallimore, Ward; Nisbet, Nelson, Crawford; Reid, Rowley, Harper, Bargh, Hales.

MEET THE OPPOSITION . . . .

Four points behind League leaders Arsenal, West Bromwich Albion have three matches in hand, and are poised for yet another bid for the championship—also with a strong stake in the F.A. Cup's last sixteen.

West Brom have a remarkable away record thus far in the season—by far the best in Division One—winning seven and losing only twice on travel, with the outstanding goals aggregate on visiting soil of 33-17, which easily tops any other away goals return in the table.

In goal we find a newcomer to Deepdale in the twenty-two-year-old RAY POTTER, born Beckenham in Kent; he signed for Crystal Palace in May 1953, and was transferred to Albion only last June. He stands six feet in height and weighs over twelve stone.

Right full back and England star is DON HOWE, double figures in national honours, seldom absent from his club side, except when his country calls; born Wolverhampton, straight to the Throstles' nest from his schooldays in 1949, signing professional when seventeen years of age some seven years ago. His left back partner is the Welsh international defender STUART WILLIAMS, born Wrexham, transferred from the Wrexham club to West Brom on amateur forms in 1950, turning to professional status in February of the next year; is more or less everpresent in the Albion line-up. Right half MAURICE SETTERS, now happily recovered from a serious injury, was this week chosen for the England Under-23's v. the Scots at Ibrox next Wednesday, his third such Under-23's honour this season. He was born at Honiton, in Devon, a former Exeter City player; he went to the Hawthorns in 1955—and has proved to be a grand capture.

OFFICIAL SUPPLIERS TO PRESTON NORTH END F.C. LIMITED

Centre half and former star wing half is the big and rangy RAY BARLOW—cultured performer—a permanent fixture in the Albion side—one England cap against Ireland in 1954. Can play anywhere on the field, a native of Swindon, signed professional forms for his club in November 1944. Left halt in the Brentford Cup-tie last Saturday was the 21-year-old CHARLIE DRURY, born at Darlaston, Staffs.; signed as a junior for West Brom in February 1955—another new face in the Throstles' team.

Right winger FRANK GRIFFIN, happily back in the side following a broken leg just one year ago in a Cup-tie replay with Sheffield United. A son of Pendlebury, transferred from Shrewsbury Town in April 1951, previously with Newton Heath F.C., one time amateur on Bolton Wanderers' books. He scored the winning goal in the 1954 Wembley Cup Final against North End.

Inside right BOBBY ROBSON, one of the three inside trio of West Bromwich England players; born Durham, transferred from Fulham for a big fee on March 9th, 1956—a former Middlesbrough amateur. Automatic selection when fit, but in last week's Cup-tie his place was taken by the 21-year-old ALEC JACKSON. He hails from Tipton, Staffs.; went to the Hawthorns as a junior in September 1954.

Leader of the attack and constant danger-man is the intelligent student of football and England player RONNIE ALLEN, born Fenton, Staffs.—a star winger with Port Vale prior to his joining the Throstles in March 1950. Penalty-kick expert and noted "half a chance" marksman.

Inside left and England forward is the big blonde DEREK KEVAN, a powerfully-built grafter and free-scoring menace—netted both West Brom goals in last week's Cup victory. He comes from Ripon in Yorkshire and joined Albion from Bradford Park Avenue F.C. in 1953. Left wing stand-in for the compulsorily absent Derek Hogg, is likely to be ROY HOROBIN, a local from the small community of Brownhills; joined the Albion staff from his schooldays seven years ago.
